COLLEGE ACTIVITIES DURING THE SESSION

2014-2015

PART – B

1. Activities reflecting institutional vision, goals and objectives

The Vision and mission statements of the Institution are completely in tune with the Higher Education policies of the nation. The Institution caters to the all round development and value-based education of girls which is also the policy of the nation. Our institution being a minority one and situated in a backward constituency, further promotes higher education for backward and minority communities, which is wonderful moral, cultural and spiritual environment to allow complete self development of the students. The various co-curricular activities further promote this spirit.

Since our college is run by the member of Arya Vidhya Sabha who follow the ideas of “Swami Dayanand Saraswati”, Our curriculum includes Prayer, Havan, Assembly, Yoga and Spiritual Discourses to preserve our age Old Vedic culture and tradition.

The following activities were performed in the session 2014-15

In-charge- Dr. Uma Tripathi

- 1) Prayer – At 7.30a.m. the college activity begins with the chanting of Gayatri Mantra & Prayer & National Anthem.
- 2) Thought of the Day – Daily a quotation on moral and spiritual issues is written on the notice board so that the students are inspired to follow them.
- 3) Assembly – A weekly assembly is held every Saturday at 7.30a.m. in which students are given chance to speak on moral topic or narrate some stories with moral lesson.
- 4) Hawan – since performing “Hawan” is a part of Arya and Vedic culture. It is a part of regular curriculum. Hawan is performed by the students every Saturday at 10.50 a.m. It is believed that Hawan purifies the atmosphere as well as the mind and gives a positive mental force to live a better life.
- 5) Special Hawan – On Special occasions special Hawan are performed.

Community Services :

The college has chain of activities to promote college neighbourhood network in which students acquire acumen for service and training. The students participate in activities such as NSS, Population Education, Sindhu Yuva Force, NCC, CIKF. Since Majority of the students are from the linguistic minorities and reserved categories, they take avid interest in such activities. Some of them are as follows.

Mrs. Sushmita Kundu

Two term end exams are conducted by the Exam Department of Dayanand Arya Kanya Mahavidyalaya, to evaluate the subjective performance of students. In the I Term exam 50% of the syllabus is evaluated but in the II term 100% of the syllabus is covered. Both the term end exam question papers are set in the university pattern. The exam department calls for question papers from all faculties and they are later on printed and preserved with full confidentiality. The Exam Time-Table is displayed well in advance so that the students can prepare for their exams systematically. The exam roll numbers and seating arrangement is also displayed on due time. The propose of the exams is to give students a complete practice before their university exams.

The first term exams of 50 marks based on half the syllabus was conducted from 10th October 2014 to 20th October 2014. The exams were conducted smoothly as per the time table attached. According to the instructions of the exam department, the faculty members submitted the results after the Diwali vacation and distributed the answer sheets to the respective students and discussed their mistakes with them. Full fledged guidance was given to the students regarding the improvement of their results. Later on a parent teacher meeting was also conducted in the month of December.
