

The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

BEST PRACTICES

1. Optimum use of Library resources.

Goal of the practice: a. To provide the facilities of the Library to the students of other institutions.

b. To provide e-learning facility for UG and PG students.

The process: Our Institution has a spacious and well enriched Library. Therefore in order to provide opportunity to the outside students and to offer the facilities of the learning resources to them, we have started practice.

The students of UG and PG of our institution are allowed access of internet facility for e-learning purpose (searching of e-books etc.) in the library, to meet the demands of the students to gain extra knowledge.

Impact of the practice: Many students from other colleges have made use of this facility; also students from our institution are increasingly using internet facility in the library for e-learning purposes.

Resources required: A well enriched library and helping library staff.

2. Extra-curricular activities as a means for students' personality development.

Goal of the practice: To develop the overall personality of the students through extra-curricular activities.

The Process: The institution from the beginning has undertaken a large number of extra-curricular activities for the overall development of the students. Activities like sports and cultural events are held every year. Students are encouraged for intra- and intercollegiate competitions. We have an active NSS and NCC units. To bring out students' hidden talents, a college magazine is published every year. Every year, debate, elocution, essay writing competitions are conducted. We do this with full dedication and concentrated efforts.

Impact of the Practice: All the events receive good response. More and more students are participating in all the events every year. Many students are able to perform well at interviews and other programs where social, communicational and cultural skills are needed. Even students, who are shy initially, are able to overcome their diffidence.

Resources required: Institution's infrastructure and enthusiastic staff.
