The district has 140 Royal Bengal Tigers and very popular destination for wildlife tourism. You can book your wildlife safari for Tadoba-Andhari Tiger Reserve online on <http://www.mahacotourism.gov.in/Site/Common/nationalParks.aspx>

About the Seminar:

The Process of Urbanization has changed the landscape around the cities, it has consumed the rich agriculture land, blocked it as a fallow land around cities. Urbanization has created the major civic problems in the cities and towns. Towns are overpopulated and went beyond managing level which leads to the antisocial activities, mixing of language, culture and race. Cultural mixing now turning towards the cultural pollution, this situation is attracting the attention of the geographers for long term solutions. This seminar will focus the light on present urban problems in country and urban geographers will be in lighted towards the feasible solutions.

Sub-Themes:

Urbanization and Agriculture Problems. Urbanization and diminishing forest resources. Process of Urbanization and its quantification, Rural-Urban Fringes. Environmental Problems and their association with the Urbanization. Urbanization and climatic problems, Micro-climatic change and Urban sprawl. Urbanization and Solid Waste Management issues, Urbanization and Water distribution issues. Encroachments and related problems. Urbanization and sewage. Man animal conflict and Urbanization.

Paper Submission for Seminar:

We invited the original research papers from the faculties for presentation in this seminar, which will be published in the ISSN journal 'Janata Multidisciplinary Research Journal with publication fee (ISSN No. 2456-4893)'. Subject: Request for your approval to organize the one day seminar in Geography and Environmental Studies Departments / financial assistance

Dear Sir,

The Department of Geography is intent to organize one day University level seminar with the association of Environmental Studies Department of our College. The seminar will be organized in the last week of February 2017. The focal theme of the seminar will be on "Urbanization and health Issues". Chandrapur is a most polluted city in entire Maharashtra State. Environmental and wildlife issues are very intensive in this district. The Environmental Studies Syllabus is bringing the habitual changes and creating the Environmental/ Ecological awareness among the youth.

Two students and a teacher will be invited to the Seminar. We already are in contact with the renowned environmentalists in a Nation to address the seminar. I assure you about the full success of this seminar and yield the seeds of conservation among the youth.

I seek your kind ascent and financial assistance to this seminar.

Sincerely Yours.
